A TOUR TO SOUTHWEST FRANCE

SEPTEMBER 2017

New View Tours is pleased to offer a 11 night/12-day exploration of the Castles and Caves in the Perigord region in southwest France.

This trip will be an exploration of the earliest artists and architecture in south west France. Plans are in place to visit a variety of pre-historic caves with magnificent paintings, etchings and relief sculptures created 19 - 28,000 years ago. The newest cave is a re-creation - Lascaux IV opened December 2016. We have tickets to the original, exclusive Font-de-Gaume; Rouffignac, Cap Blanc and Peche Merle. We explore castles of Beynac and Castlenaud, where English and French kings battled across the banks of the Dordogne River. Our first stop is Bordeaux, we include the new Museum of Wine; in Les Eyzies we see the amazing National PreHistoric Museum of France. Albi is home of the 13 century brick cathedral and the Toulouse Lautrec Museum. It all comes together in medieval bastides - fortified "new towns" built by nobles - for example Saint Emilion, Sarlat, Saint Cirq Lapopie – each unique communes. We'll wrap up our tour with travels across the Lot valley to Carcassonne.

The itinerary is a draft and may be adapted to include other favorite destinations, your individual choice and opportunities and circumstances as they crop up!
