

NEW VIEW TOURS

Gardens & Trails - Ecuador
November 3 - 15, 2015 - 12 nights

The adventure begins in Guayaquil at sea level. After a city tour, we make a gradual transition from the tropical Pacific Coast through the southern Loja region to the beautiful colonial city of Cuenca. We'll explore this walking city, a World Heritage site, then fly to Quito, the sophisticated capital at 9,300 feet. We tour the restored historic section of the city; visit high end craft shops of Olga Fisch & Galería Latina, then stop at the unique village of Nono for lunch and spectacular views of Pichincha volcano. We cross the equator at Quitsato, to explore a remote cloud forest of Intag in a private preserve with extraordinary bird watching, hiking (4x4 available). The journey continues to the garden paradise of Hacienda Cusin. From here, visit the rim of Cuicocha volcano, see the condor park, explore leather village of Cotacachi & visit the weaver's home and music workshop. And of course, the Otavalo markets! $3,300 - per person/dble
